

1 Location

The Singular Santiago sits in the heart of Lastarria neighborhood, Santiago's cultural and artistic center. Museums, performing arts spaces, outdoor coffes, vintage book shops, public parks - all just a short safe walk in any direction from the hotel.

2 Brand new building

Although the neighborhood is rich in history, The Singular Santiago was built brand new from the ground up providing guests the latest in hotel comfort, design and technology. Don't worry, the hotel was carefully constructed to seamlessly blend into the vibrant neighborhood paying homage to the classic European style of nearby buildings.

3 A city center oasis

Santiago is a terrific walking city, especially the area surrounding The Singular. After a long day of exploring, guests can return to The Singular for a sumptuous spa experience in one of the multiple treatment rooms, including a couple's massage room complete with private jacuzzi. A menu of 13 different treatments including: four-handed massage, celtic foot massage, facials, shiatsu and thai massage all help to create physical, mental and spiritual harmony.

4 Rooftop retreat overlooking

The crown jewel is the roof top bar with two large terraces high above Chile's capital and the historically important Santa Lucia Hill which played a key part in the formation of the City. The open air oasis features a 26 ft marble bar, outdoor dining tables and chaise lounges to soak up some city sun in between meetings. Indulge in specialty cocktails and gourmet snacks or just take in the awe-inspiring views of Santiago below.

5 Culinary creativity

Our trained Chef Hernán Basso uses classical French techniques to create delectable dishes made from locally sourced natural ingredients found within Chile. Serving lunch and dinner, The Singular Restaurant's menu is bountiful with fresh fish and seafood and prime non-caged meats all assembled with the creative touch of an artist.

6 At your service

As a family owned hotel, guests are treated as just that, family. The all-too-common check in counter is replaced with an intimate one-on-one seated registration experience. Clefs d'or concierges stand at the ready to put one of their many top secret connections to work. Room service is available on a moments notice 24/7. At The Singular Santiago, highly personalized service is paramount!

7 Classic elegance

The Singular Santiago is inspired by classical European design and elegance. Comfortable spaces are meticulously appointed. Rooms are oversized with custom furnishings and high thread count fabrics. Bathrooms are overrun with white marble stretching from the vanity to the large soaking tub. From the front door to the rooftop and every inch in between, The Singular Santiago exudes a classic elegance that is pervasive throughout.

8 Inspiring decor

Chilean designer Enrique Concha created an inspiring and inviting environment that is pristine yet comfortable; elegant yet welcoming. Custom furnishings inspired by the classic European elegance of yesteryear mix well with modern accouterments and carefully selected art. The Singular Santiago is a luxurious retreat that earns the moniker as your "home away from home."

9 South american hub

Chile is an incredible vibrant country that has experienced significant growth over the last few years. After spending a few days at The Singular Santiago go forth and explore the region. from a day trip to Valparaíso or the Wine valley to adventures farther afield such as Patagonia or the Atacama desert, The Singular Santiago is that warm, comfortable place where you rest your feet and get pampered before and after!

10 Our meeting rooms

The architecture and design of our meeting rooms are the reflection of an intimate and elegant space for your private meetings. Big ideas come from "singular" spaces: Mulato Gil meeting room, Tajamares, Bellas artes y Forestal. Our cava it has capacity for 10 persons. Especially used for dinners and lunches. Besides our Rooftop Bar is considered one of the best terraces in Santiago.

Download PDF

Book online

A MEMBER OF
THE LEADING HOTELS
OF THE WORLD

Reservations: santiagoreservas@thesingular.com - T. +56 2 2306 8810 - Monday to Friday from 08:30 hrs. to 06:00 hrs. - Chile www.thesingular.com i f