PATAGONIA

A 5-day itinerary. Not a fixed route, but an invitation to observe, to walk, to sail. Each step reveals a new landscape.

DAY

2

TORRES DEL PAINE

Torres del Paine, one of Patagonia's most iconic landscapes. The park is vast, but not unreachable. Those seeking a challenge can take on the trek to the Base of the Towers. Explore the Eastern sector, where the mountains dominate the view, or the Western side, where the wind sweeps clouds over turquoise lakes. Another option is the Water Trail... each route offers a unique way to connect with the majesty of nature. One of the most extraordinary places on Earth.

3

FJORDS, GLACIERS, ESTANCIA

It all begins at the dock. Our boat navigates through the fjords toward the Balmaceda and Serrano Glaciers. On land, a short walk brings you closer to the ice. Then the journey continues to a traditional estancia for a typical lunch. Afterward, there's time to ride, walk, or simply take it all in. There's no rush.

4

SIERRA BAGUALES

A land waiting to be discovered. No marked trails. No crowds. Open-air fossils, wild horses, and an uninterrupted horizon. Hike up a hill, ride to a hidden lagoon, or simply walk. Here, silence is not the absence of sound it's part of the landscape.

A FINAL LOOK

Before heading back, there's still time for one more moment. A short walk. A pause by the fjord. A last mate shared. Some guests hike to the Condor Viewpoint. Every choice is valid. Sometimes, it's the simplest moments that leave the deepest impression. And even as you leave, a part of Patagonia stays with you.
